

COLON CANCER COALITION

Be a part of the 5th annual Twin Cities Get Your Rear in Gear 5K event. Help us celebrate survivors, cheer on those battling colon and rectal cancer and honor those we have lost too soon to this disease.

2009 New and Improved!

Team Kit

Forming a Team is easier than you think and is a great way for you and family members, friends, neighbors, schoolmates, co-workers – whoever! – to help make a difference in the battle against colon cancer. Those signing up as Team Captain will receive our new Team Kit filled with great ideas on how to grow your team and easy and fun fundraising ideas for you to try. There are some great incentives for our Teams and Fundraisers too!

Kids' ½ Mile Fun Run

The 2009 Kids' Fun Run is dedicated to Anne Notch who was diagnosed with stage 4 colorectal cancer while pregnant with her third child. Anne is making each day count with her children, marking the big events and the not so big events in very special ways. The Kids' Fun Run is not only a place for our younger runners and walkers to show their stuff, but also a time for us to honor an extraordinary parent who is an inspiration to her children and to many others as well.

Great Shirts and Bags

New terrific dri-fit shirts for our participants again in 2009! Look for a special new goodie bag that we hope will get lots of use well beyond race day.

Photo Opportunities

A group picture of colorectal cancer survivors will be taken the morning of the event. Team photos will also be taken. Each survivor and Team Captain gets one free copy of photos taken; additional photos will be available for purchase.
